Think shuttles will be available in the morning and afternoon between designated conference hotels and the Moscone Center Monday through Friday.

The following hotels will offer Think shuttle service to and from the Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) train station for travel to and from downtown San Francisco and Moscone Center. Attendees will take BART to the Powell Street Station, a short walk to Moscone Center. Please note, attendees are responsible for the purchase of BART tickets.

A detailed shuttle schedule will be available closer to the conference dates. For a list of hotels and associated transportation, please click here.
Walking guide

Walking is the best way to get from venue to venue around Think. Make sure you are wearing comfortable walking shoes to get around! To figure out how far you need to walk, check out the distance in miles from each Think venue:

Distances are Google’s shortest walking distance rounded to the nearest tenth of a mile.
